Notes:

1. We will not trade the CNY Manufacturing PMI on Sunday, 3/31 due to the Easter holiday and AUS markets being closed.
2. Monday, 4/1 is also a bank holiday for all of Europe, so trade volume will be considerably less for the ISM report. Take that into consideration if you decide to trade it.
3. We will not trade the Unemployment claims this week as the ECB Press conference will be released at the same time causing a potentially volatile and risky proposition.
