Notes:

1. Please bear with us for a couple of days as my computer crashed on Saturday late night and I am working to get it functional again. HIRA delivery will be later than normal.
2. Due to the US 4th of July Holiday, the US Non-Farm Employment report will be moved to Thursday and release with Unemployment claims and Trade Balance. The NFP will overshadow all other news, but the other reports will still add volatility good for a Trap Trade.
3. We will not trade AUS Retail Sales on Weds evening as Building Approvals will be released at the same time.
4. Due to the holiday weekend, the next forensics webinar is on Saturday, 12 July 5:00 - 6:30 PM EDT.
